HOPE D'ANNUNZIO WILL QUIT

By the Associated Press Flume, Dec. 1 .- Military action by Italian regulars against the legionaires of Captain Gabriel D'Annunzio in this city is apparently foreshadowed in an order of the day issued by General Caviglia, commander of the regulars comandante delle truppe regolari containe ai confini di Fiume.

"Noi abbiamo da affrontare una grave prova in questo momento—dice l'ordine del giorno—ma io faccio assegnamento sopra la vostra completa."

"We are faced with a sad task at the present moment," the order said, "but I rely upon your complete copersamento sopra la vostra completa."

l'ordine del gierno—ma io facelo assegnamento sopra la vostra completa cooperazione."

Durante una conversazione con un giornalista il Generale Caviglia avrebbe detto che egli si sarebbe subito ritirato dalla scena se un tale passo poteva causare un cambiamento nell'attitudine di D'Annunzio, dicendosi che sarebbe stato felicissimo di sacrificarai per il bene della nazione.

"Nessun italiano—ha detto il Caviglia—potrebbe opporre la sua volonta a quella del Paese."

Londra, 1 dicembre—Il Presidente del Consiglio dei Ministri, On. Oiolitti, parlando ieri alla Camera dei Deputati, rifiuto' di rispondere ad una domanda con la quele gli si chiedeva se il Governo avera intenzione dei prendere. but no serious consequences have so far resulted.

One of the young officers, when asked a question by a newspaper man, re-marked as he excused himself: "We are extremely busy; we are at war."

London, Dec. 1.—(By A. P.)—Premier Giolitti, of Italy, speaking in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, refused to answer a question asking whether the government intended to take military measures against Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio in Fiume, says a Rome dispatch to the London Times.

"The government," he declared, "is anxious to hasten final ratification of the Hapallo treaty with Jugo-Slavia, which already has been approved by the chamber and will be submitted to the Senate on December 2.

While General Caviglia's regulars have thrown a cordon around Flume, only small incidents have thus far been reported, says a Milan dispatch to the Times. Every effort will be made by the regulars, it is said, to induce the followers of D'Annunsion to desert.

The dispatch quoter a telegram from followers of D Annuncion to desert.

The dispatch quotes a telegram from Trieste to the effect that regular Alpini and some of D'Annunzio's men exchanged shots and hand grenades when the latter crussed into Italian territory proper. A few regulars were made prisoners by D'Annunzio's soldiers at an advanced post on the road to Cantries.
